The descriptor "running down the street" is misplaced. For example, "After eating dinner, the movie started" implies the movie ate dinner. Misplaced and Dangling Modifiers: Modifiers – phrases that modify other words – must be placed adjacent to the phrases they describe. Misplaced modifiers contribute to unwieldy and sometimes absurd sentences. The correct sentence would be: "The tree collapsed on the car, which was running down the street. For instance, "Running down the street, the tree toppled on the car" is erroneous. 3. The tree was not running. " A dangling modifier lacks a clear object. The correct construction would specify who ingested dinner before the movie commenced. 44c6db92e9

Q1: Are there any resources that can help me improve my English usage. 44c6db92e9

For illustration, "The dog chased the cat, and it ran away" is unclear. Ambiguous pronoun reference is a common error. Pronoun Agreement and Reference: Pronouns stand in for nouns to avoid duplication, but their employment must be precise to maintain clarity. 2. ". For example, "Everyone should bring their own lunch" is grammatically wrong because "everyone" is singular, but "their" is plural. A better option is "Everyone should bring his or her own lunch," or using a plural subject such as "All students should bring their own lunch. " Similar issues occur with pronoun agreement in number and gender. A better sentence would be: "The dog chased the cat, and the cat ran away. Proper pronoun reference requires that the antecedent (the noun the pronoun refers to) is obvious. Which one ran away – the dog or the cat. 44c6db92e9

Subject-Verb Agreement: This is a basic aspect of grammar, yet it continuously causes many composers up. The basic rule is that the verb must agree in number with its subject. Since the subject is "neither. For instance, "The group of students are toiling on the project" is incorrect. The subject is "group," which is singular, so the correct verb is "is. " Similarly, "Neither the teacher nor the students were prepared" is incorrect. 1. nor," the verb should conform with the closest part – "students," making the correct verb "were. ". However, difficulties arise with inserted phrases, compound subjects, and collective nouns. 44c6db92e9

" Also, ensuring correct verb forms (past participle, present participle, etc.) is important for clear communication. Switching among tenses needlessly or using the wrong tense can distort the meaning of a sentence. 4. Incorrect Tense and Verb Form: English has a intricate system of verb tenses, and errors in tense agreement can muddle the reader or listener. The past tense "went" should stay consistent with the past tense "bought. For illustration, "I went to the store and buy some milk" is incorrect. 44c6db92e9
