List of Microsoft codenames Many of these products (new versions of Windows in particular) are of major significance to the IT community, and so the terms are often widely used in discussions before the official release. Microsoft usually does not announce a final name until shortly before the product is publicly available. Retrieved August 10, 2017. Chivers Microsoft codenames are given by Microsoft to products it has in development before these products are given the names by which they appear on store shelves. It is not uncommon for Microsoft to reuse codenames a few years after a previous usage has been abandoned. Scannell, Ed (July 15, 2002). Archived from the original on September 8, 2012.
