In these volumes we have not only a gospel to the world at large, but also, to its own children, the Charter of the Hindu faith. What Hinduism had needed was the organizing and consolidating of its own idea, a rock where she could lie at anchor, and an authoritative utterance in which she might recognise herself. Published by Advaita Ashrama, a publication house of Ramakrishna Math, Belur Math, this is Volume 2 of the nine volume series constituting 'The Complete Works of Swami Vivekananda'. It is the latest gospel of a modern Prophet of religion and spirituality to the mankind. What the world had needed was a faith that had no fear of truth. Both are found in the words and writings of Swami Vivekananda. For the first time in history, Hinduism itself forms here the subject of generalization of a Hindu mind of the highest order c72c4029c2

No fundamental work for the uplift of the individual or of the community can ever be done without the mind being controlled. The control of the mind is not a problem peculiar to religious aspirants; people in all walks of life need to control their minds if they are to succeed in their respective vocation. This book published by Advaita Ashrama, a publication house of Ramakrishna Math, Belur Math, India, sets forth the teachings of Vedanta and Yoga on the nature of the mind and ways of controlling it c72c4029c2

VIVE KANANDA A Biography c72c4029c2

If we succeed in finding one ready-made, we take the newcomer in immediately. An organized grouping, revealing to us a similarity running through the whole group, and a conviction that under similar circumstances the group will arrange itself in the same form — stretched over all time, past, present and future — is what we call law. If not, we either reject the new fact, or wait till we find more of his kind, and form a new place for the group. This finding of unity in variety is really what we call knowledge. Classification or grouping of phenomena by their similarities is the first step in scientific knowledge — perhaps it is all. These different groups of similars are stowed away in the pigeon-holes of the mind, and when a new fact comes before us we begin to search for a similar group already existing in one of the pigeon-holes of the mind c72c4029c2

Shri Surya Sinha has created complete personality development programme by identifying the need of the modern time. They have been translated into twelve-odd languages too. It is your personality that leaves an impact on people. Motivated by this impact, they start following you. We believe that this book would convert you from ordinary to extraordinary. Their only notion behind this is that they consider the effort of polishing personality as a mere ostentation and thus, they avoid living in a proper order (by stating that they love simplicity). If these questions do not have answers, know that these problems would be solved only through complete personality development. Whereas in the modern era, if one has to get success, one must focus on complete personality development. It is sad to observe that the common man of our country does not take much interest in polishing his personality. * Do people pay attention to you by getting impressed by you. * Are you successful in maintaining your personal and professional relationships. * Do you motivate people. Thus, he has given benefit to numerous young men and women and many books, which were written by him on the basis of his experiences, have become bestsellers in the market. In the presented book, he has thrown light on all those human efforts related to personality development which convert a man from ordinary to extraordinary. * Are you successful in your life. Because personality of a person plays an important role in increasing his success, fame and honour c72c4029c2
