As of 2026, a reboot of the series is in development for Disney+, with older characters. == Taxonomy == The story was first published in the Danish Anders And & Co. #1993-24; the first American publication was in Uncle Scrooge #291, in April 1995. Philip has many alternative spellings. One derivation often used as a surname is Phillips. The original Greek spelling includes two Ps as seen in Philippides and Philippos, which is possible due to the Greek endings following the two Ps. To end a word with such a double consonant—in Greek or in English—would, however, be incorrect. It has many diminutive (or even hypocoristic) forms including Phil, Philly, Phillie, Lip, and Pip. There are also feminine forms such as Philippine and Philippa. Darkwing Duck follows the adventures of the titular superhero, aided by his sidekick and pilot Launchpad McQuack (from DuckTales). In his secret identity of Drake Mallard (a parody of Kent Allard, the alter ego of The Shadow), he lives in an unassuming suburban house with his adopted daughter Gosalyn, next door to the dim-witted Muddlefoot family. Darkwing struggles to balance his egotistical craving for fame and attention against his desire to be a good father to Gosalyn and help do good in St. Canard as he fights villains that include but are not limited to Negaduck (a Darkwing Duck from an alternate reality), Dr. Reginald Bushroot, Megavolt, Quackerjack, Liquidator, F.O.W.L. agents... Fulvous whistling duck It has plumage that is mainly reddish brown, long legs and a long grey bill, and shows a distinctive white band across its black tail in flight. Its preferred habitat consists of wetlands with plentiful vegetation, including shallow lakes and paddy fields. Like other members of its ancient lineage, it has a whistling call which is given in flight or on the ground. The nest, built from plant material and unlined, is placed among dense vegetation or in a tree hole. The typical clutch is around ten whitish eggs. The breeding adults, which pair for life, take turns to incubate, and the eggs hatch in 24–29 days. The downy grey ducklings leave the nest within a day or so of hatching, but the parents continue to protect them until they fledge around nine weeks later. == Philip in other languages == Philip in other languages == Philip Prominent Philips who popularized the name include kings of Macedonia and one of the apostles of early Christianity.
